

3 Key Questions & Answers

1. WHAT are we called to do as a church? It is clear from the Great Commission, found in Matthew 28:18-20, that the purpose of the church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ.
2. WHY should we make disciples? The motivation for making disciples is love, which is the Greatest Commandment according to Jesus in Matthew 22:36-40. Because we love God and our fellow man, we want to help people mirror Christ in the way they live and love.
3. HOW will we make disciples who live and love like Jesus Christ? That's where the 4 G's of Discipleship come in, which is our strategy. See below for details...
